JOINT CONFERENCE

Miners and Operators of the Central Competitive District Meet in Indianapolis.

PITTSBURG DELEGATES WERE LATE

E. L. Robbins Acts as Floor Leader for the Operators and President Mitchell for Workers.

Jacob C. Kolson, of Terre Haute, Was Selected Permanent Chairman and Secretary Wilson Was Chosen Permanent Secretary.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The first session of the joint conference of the miners and operators of the central competitive district was devoted almost entirely to speeches, and the second session was delayed because of the late arrival of the Pittsburg delegation of operators.

F. L. Robbins, of the Pittsburg delegation, will act as floor leader of the operators, with W. S. Bogle, of the Indiana operators, as his lieutenant. President John Mitchell, of the miners' organization, will act in the same capacity for the miners, with Vice President T. L. Lewis as lieutenant.

Jacob C. Kolson, of Terre Haute, was selected as permanent chairman of the joint conference, and W. S. Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the miners' organization, was chosen permanent secretary. C. L. Scroggs, secretary of the Illinois operators, was chosen assistant secretary.

The committee on rules and order of business reported favorably on the following:

Rules.—The hours of the conference shall be from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m., with a recess from 12 to 2 o'clock. The miners' representatives shall occupy the right side of the hall; the operators' the left side. Each state shall be permitted the same number of votes on the floor of the convention—four votes on behalf of the operators, and four votes on behalf of the miners of each state. No motion shall be declared carried except on the affirmative vote of the miners and operators of each state. Each state shall have four operators and four miners on the scale committee. Sessions shall be open to the public, except where otherwise ordered. The use of tobacco in the convention hall is prohibited.

President John Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, said in a speech Thursday: "The union will welcome every eligible man, whether he be democrat, republican, populist or socialist. All I ask is that he shall not thrust politics down the throats of other members." He denied having any intention of accepting a government position, saying: "I prefer to be at the head of this government."

Bennett Brown, commissioner for operators of the southwestern competitive district, said he believed that the time would come when there would be only three competitive fields, but did not believe that the operators were ready for a change now. He refused to discuss the suggestion of Vice President Lewis, of the miners' organization, that all wage contracts expire on the same date, preferably April 1.

CAGE FELL TO THE BOTTOM.

Four Men, All Foreigners, Crushed to Death in An Air Shaft.

Brownsville, Pa., Jan. 29.—Four men, all foreigners, were crushed to death Thursday in a new air shaft of the Briar Hill Coal Co. here. The shaft was 685 feet deep and the men were being lowered in a bucket when a four-hundred-pound pilot weight broke, precipitating the bucket and men to the bottom. The heavy weight falling on them crushed the men beyond recognition. It is said by the officials that the accident was due to the failure of the men to remove the weight from the lever before starting down.

Mr. Bryan's Sister Critically Ill. Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 29.—Miss Nannie Bryan, sister of W. J. Bryan, is critically ill with tubercular peritonitis at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. S. THE KENTUCKY SOLONS.

The Boonesboro Fort Bill Passed in the Senate.

Frankfort, Jan. 29.—Senate.—The Burnam resolution appropriating $2,000 for a monument to mark the site of the old fort at Boonesboro, in Madison county, was reported without expression of opposition by the committee, and after an eloquent speech by Senator Burnam was passed by a vote of 23 to 2. The capitol appropriation bill was passed. The Cantrill school-house bill as enrolled was read by the clerks and signed by the president. It went at once to the governor.

House.—Mr. Barton indicated the presence of S. R. Hollen, of Covington, seated Wednesday to succeed H. D. Gregory, and he was sworn in. The Ray bill, allowing an amendment of the constitution by a majority of all votes shown by caucus returns, was reported unfavorably, but was advanced to its second reading by a vote of the house. The Ray bill to allow the state board of valuation and assessment to assess for taxation the shares of stock in national banks, was reported favorably by the committee on revenue and taxation and advanced to the calendar. The same committee reported favorably the Sharp bill providing for the assessment of promissory notes. The Hearn bill, regulating the practice of pharmacy, was reported favorably by the committee on public health.

MONEY SEWED IN A BELT.

Wealthy Kansas Woman Dies in a Hospital in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 29.—With over $3,000 in currency and negotiable papers and documents showing that she is the owner of Kansas real estate worth anywhere from $20,000 to $60,000, Mrs. Marie Uitts, an aged German woman, of Independence, Kan., was found at the Union depot Thursday and taken to the city hospital, where she died. When discovered by Patrolman Rees at the station, Mrs. Uitts was suffering from an attack of pneumonia in an advanced stage, but despite her condition she refused to go to the hospital, and the ambulance corps were compelled to use force to induce her to accompany them. At the hospital she fought the physicians and nurses until her feeble strength was exhausted in an effort to prevent them from undressing her. The cause of Mrs. Uitts' unwillingness to have her clothing removed by the nurses was made plain when the money was found sewed in a cotton belt.

NEW CAPITOL BUILDING.

The Bill Passed Through the Senate By a Unanimous Vote.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 29.—The passage through the senate Thursday afternoon by unanimous vote the house bill appropriating a million dollars for a new capitol at Frankfort marked the end of a fight which had been waged for the removal of the seat of government since the days when Henry Clay came to the legislature as a representative from Lexington and started a fight which has been the cherished ambition of that city since till the present session, when Lexington, Louisville and other towns joined in and aided Frankfort for the present bill.

The Truck Gave Way.

Corinth, Ky., Jan. 29.—A slight wreck occurred to passenger train No. 4 on the Southern Thursday morning, caused by a truck giving way and wrecking the mail car. No one was badly hurt save Trackwalker Page, who was struck by a flying bit of iron and his leg broken near the hip.

Winchester, Ky., Jan. 29.—At a dance at the residence of William Green, in this county, Charles Bentley and John Sharp fell out over some trivial affair, and Sharp shot Bentley through the bowels, inflicting a fatal wound.

BURYING THE DEAD.

Funeral Processions and Rescue Parties in Charge of Recovered Bodies Pass Each Other.

WERE MANY PATHETIC SCENES.

Of the 103 Corpses Recovered and Taken to the School House 39 Have Been Identified.

Foreign Miners at Harwick Almost to a Man Refused to Enter the Mine to Assist in the Work of Rescue.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 29.—Burial processions and rescue parties in charge of newly recovered bodies passed each other Thursday on the road that leads from the Harwick mine to the morgue and many were the pathetic scenes.

Of the 103 bodies recovered and taken to the school house morgue, 39 have been identified and 18 have been buried.

The first funerals of the victims were held Thursday afternoon. Rev. E. O. Graham, of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Vincent Manelli, of the Italian Catholic church of New Kensington, were in charge. Out in the open air in front of the blacksmith shop where the confined bodies of the men have been placed were gathered the friends and relatives of those that have been identified.

The caskets were placed in groups along one side of the building with the ministers who were to perform the last rites standing by them. The bodies of those miners who belonged to the Catholic church were placed in a group by themselves and over them the priest stood until all were ready to be moved to the cemetery. It was a short and simple service, only a few words and a prayer and then the journey to the cemetery began. There a brief service was held, the caskets were lowered into the grave and for the friends and surviving relatives the last incident of the great disaster was over.

The foreign miners at Harwick almost to a man refused to enter the mine to assist in the rescue work, yet the volunteers from outside points are doing such good work that they are bringing out bodies faster than the corps of undertakers can handle them and the remains of the victims are being arranged in tiers outside the school house. The work of recovering the bodies will be kept up continuously until all are found.

The relief fund now exceeds $10,000 and contributions continue to come in liberally.

When the work of recovering bodies was temporarily stopped at midnight 106 victims of Monday's explosion had been brought to the surface. Of this number 56 have been identified. It is expected the mine will be cleared of the dead by 6 o'clock Friday evening.

The following appeal was issued by the relief committee by telegraph Thursday: "Cheswick, Pa., Jan. 29.—One hundred and eighty-four miners killed. Families destitute. The committee urges immediate and generous aid. George A. Bigley, chairman of relief committee."

The message was sent by telegraph to the mayor of every important city in the country.

RESULT OF A KNOCKOUT.

One Pugilist Taken to the Hospital and the Other to Jail.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—Ben O'Grady, a Buffalo pugilist, is at Harper hospital and Noah Brusse was arrested Thursday night as the result of a knockout at the Detroit Athletic club. A blow to the chin in the third round sent O'Grady to the floor and he was taken in an ambulance to the hospital where he later revived. The police, however, decided to hold Brusse in custody until they become satisfied that O'Grady is out of danger.

Experimenting With Radium.

Vienna, Jan. 29.—Prof. Gussenbauer, one of the leading surgeons of Austria, has conducted successful experiments with radium for enlargement of the Gullet in cases of cancerous contraction of the esophagus, thereby obviating the necessity of recourse to artificial nourishment.

Curtailling Working Hours.

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—The owners of two more cotton mills have been forced to cut down the working time of their employees, who number about 500, because of the high price of cotton. Other mills will be forced to do the same.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 29.—M. Santos-Dumont, the world-famous aeronaut, with a party of friends, passed through here en route to the auto races at Ormond.

PANAMA REVOLUTION.

Attitude of the United States Towards It Discussed in the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Senate.—The time of the senate Thursday was devoted to debate rather than to set speeches on the attitude of the United States towards the Panama revolution. There was a variation, however, in that the discussion also had reference to the right of the president to withhold information called for by the senate. The immediate foundation of the controversy was the democratic caucus resolution calling on the president to state whether he has yet supplied all the papers in the archives bearing upon the Panama affair. The democrats contended for the right for the senate to demand information in the possession of the executive department bearing on treaties before the senate, while the republican speakers spoke in defense of the discretion of the president to withhold information.

House.—The house for an hour was entertained by a speech by Mr. J. Adam Bede (rep., Minn.), who made his maiden effort and won his spurs. His remarks were replete with wit and humor as well as serious thought. Now and then, for purposes of illustration, he would tell a story whose recital greatly amused his auditors. He received the closest attention of republicans and democrats alike and drew laughter and applause first from one and then from the other side of the house. There also was a discussion on finance by Mr. Hill (rep., Ct.), and Mr. Williams (dem., Miss.), besides references to the Panama canal and the race problem in the south.

SOUTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

Rr. Adm. C. J. Barclay May Succeed Rr. Adm. Lamberton in Command.

Washington, Jan. 29.—It is probable that Rr. Adm. B. J. Lamberton, commander-in-chief of the South Atlantic squadron, who has been pronounced by medical survey unfit for service on account of his eyesight and is on his way home, will be succeeded by Rr. Adm. Charles J. Barclay, commander of the Puget Sound navy yard.

This command is regarded as likely to prove very much more important in the near future than it has been in the past, owing to the policy the navy general board has adopted of alternating the various squadrons on their stations. Next spring the present South Atlantic squadron will proceed to the Caribbean, replacing the present squadron there, and in the course of a year or two Adm. Barclay's ships will be probably flying their pennants in the Mediterranean. This policy will do much to overcome the reluctance of naval officers to accept service on far away and undesirable stations.

JUSTICE WHITE FELL.

Injuries Will Confine Him to the House For Some Days.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Justice White, of the supreme court, had a fall Thursday resulting in injuries which will keep him confined to the house for some days. While the justice was going to his home after the adjournment of the court for the day, he slipped on the snowy sidewalk and fell on his back. He is of large build and in addition to the shock he suffered a severe strain of the abdominal and other muscles. No bones were broken.

HEAD-END COLLISION.

Engineer Killed and Fireman Badly Injured Near Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Jan. 29.—In a head-end collision Thursday night between a B. & O. S. W. passenger train and a freight train near Culloms Station, five miles from here, Engineer George Munser was killed and Fireman Harry Thompson was seriously injured. Several passengers were slightly bruised. Both engines were badly wrecked, each being reared up in the air. Several of the freight cars were wrecked, the goods they contained being strewn beside the track.

SCHAFFER MURDER.

An Arrest at Bedford Ind., is Expected Within the Next 48 Hours.

RADICAL DEVELOPMENTS SOON.

A Letter Dated Bedford But Mailed at Cincinnati From an Anonymous Writer Received by Officials.

The Detectives Are Endeavoring to Locate the Store Where a Pair of Overshoes Found in Mud Near Scene Was Purchased.

Bedford, Ind., Jan. 29.—Bedford is expecting an arrest in the Schafer murder mystery within 48 hours. The entire city is in a nervous state and the word has passed from mouth to mouth that there will be radical developments soon. The officials, however, assure every inquirer that absolutely no evidence in their hands will justify an arrest.

The investigation Thursday lasted but a few hours and not more than a half dozen witnesses were summoned. The remainder of the day was spent by the detectives in quietly working at the clues in their possession. Every effort is being made by the detectives to locate the store where the pair of overshoes found in the mud near the scene of the murder was purchased. No definite information was secured. Detective Reed believes the clue one of the most important developed.

"The Great Man."

A letter dated Bedford, but mailed at Cincinnati, from an anonymous writer was received. The detectives regard it as a hoax or the product of a crank. It follows:

"Bedford, Ind., Jan. 26. "Dear Friend—I take my pen in hand to inform you of my health. I am well and when these few lines reaches you, you will find the same. On the night that Miss Sarah Schafer was murdered, I just killed her because I loved her and she would not marry me, and we had a few words about some matters. You all mean to prison up those poor school boys for what I have done.

"Please catch me, you smart suckers. You all can get all the detectives in the United States, but they will never get me, for I am going far, far away. That poor fellow you all caught in that box car, don't punish him because he is afraid to speak about the mystery. If you all do not catch me in 48 hours draw in your horns, for God's sake. There is three of us to catch, you smart detectives. I beg in vain to let these poor fellows go. I wrote this letter just to let you all know that you are off the track, so now go way back and sit down, for God's sake. Miss Cecil White had better keep still about that 22 page letter. Yours truly,

"THE GREAT MAN."

Miss Schafer's Last Letter. It is believed that the last letter written by Miss Schafer to her roommate, Miss Love, but left on the table unopened while she went to her supper on the fatal night, may yet play a part in the general scheme. This letter is now in the possession of the detectives. This letter referred to the fact that the man whom Miss Schafer met on the train was desirous of writing to her and that she opposed the proposition. There is no danger of lack of funds to carry on the investigation. The Elks' lodge will raise a fund of several hundred dollars and it is probable that Detective Haeger, of Louisville, who was first on the scene, will be engaged to return to work independently.

Greenfield, Ind., Jan. 29.—The suspect whom Sheriff Larrabee had under his eye in connection with the Schafer murder was shown Thursday night to be entirely guiltless. Prosecutor A. C. Van Dyne went to Brown township Thursday afternoon to investigate. Late Thursday night he sent word to Greenfield that the man under suspicion was at home Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

New York, Jan. 29.—Prof. J. Leon Magnes, professor of Hebrew in Union college, Cincinnati, has been called to the pastorate of Temple Israel, Brooklyn. He is a native of Oakland, Cal., and a graduate of the University of Heidelberg.

Broken Bow, Neb., Jan. 29.—A tail-end collision of extra freights in the Burlington yards here caused the death of three trainmen and J. C. Whittenberger, of Larwell, Ind., a passenger riding in the caboose.

Au Sable, Mich., Jan. 29.—Two children of John Roberts, a farmer near Mikado, aged respectively 2½ and 6 years, were burned to death Thursday. The parents were away and the house caught fire.

 Jan. 29th, 9:30 a. m.—For Kentucky—Fair to-night
 Saturday, fair, warmer.

The homeopaths of Kentucky are out in a letter to the Legislature protesting against a bill which it is claimed has been introduced at the instance of Dr. McCormack, of the State Board of Health, and for the purpose of discriminating against the homeopaths and osteopaths. The letter claims that Dr. McCormack is the whole show in the State Board of Health. Among other things it says:

"A board which would pre-empt a system of medicine of which it had no knowledge is no more fit to examine applicants than a board of five Presbyterians, one Methodist and one Baptist is to examine the orthodoxy of all theological students."

Dr. McCormack has for years been trying to build up a medical trust in Kentucky, and the bill referred to above and another of the same character now before the Legislature were probably prepared by him or at his instance. The Legislature will surely not be so narrow-minded as to encourage in any way his schemes. If any State Medical Commission is to be established the lawmakers should, in all justice and fairness, see that all the different schools of practice are given equal representation on the commission.

Opinion of Court of Appeals Affirming Decision of the Mason Circuit Court in Above Case.

The Court of Appeals, affirming the decision of the Mason Circuit Court in the above case, says:

Appellant alleging that he bought eighteen bushels of what was represented to him by appellees as Western German millet seed, which they warranted to him as such seed, when it was not and was so known by them, that the seed they sold him were worthless, and he seeks to recover $500 damages in consequence of the alleged fraud and deceit. The only issue between the parties being to which variety of millet the seed belonged, and it appearing clear that appellant relied on his own judgment and past experience, there was no implied warranty that the seed would germinate and produce crops.

Learning that Doan's Ointment was highly recommended for all troubles of this nature I got a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. Remarkable Offering in Women's Suits!

It's a shame to stigmatize such suits as these with prices so wholly out of proportion to their quality. But necessity knows no law—we have too many suits—and they simply have to go. Women who waited for January to bring them opportunities to buy a suit at a decided saving will be fully rewarded for to-day they can secure.

Suits that are built to wear. Style and tailoring perfect in every detail. $15 is a big sum to save on one suit, especially when neither style nor quality need be sacrificed. These are suits to be proud of—they include some of the most attractive we have had this season.

All our $15 Suits step down another dollar. Instead of $8½ they are now yours for one dollar less. Fewer to choose from every day of course—a hint to the wise is sufficient.

Spring Cottons.

The "Dry Goods Economist," the leading authority in the world of Dress Goods, says in its issue of last Saturday—

These goods we now have on display. We've been leading the procession for many years and as usual we are the first store here to display advance styles for the spring of 1904.

DEMOCRATS WIN.

The Rural Free Delivery Carriers Heretofore Named Will Get the Apointments.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Representative Kehoe, of the Ninth Kentucky district, won a big fight to-day over the Mason County Republican organization. Nearly two months ago Mr. Kehoe succeeded in having a county free rural delivery service installed in Mason. An examination for carriers was held, and the six applicants who had attained the highest averages were appointed. It developed later that the six successful candidates were all Democrats, and the Republicans of the county immediately protested to the department, and stated that there was collusion between the examiner and the Democrats.

The department, without hearing further evidence, immediately revoked the commissions of the carriers, after they had gone to the expense of purchasing wagons and horses.

Mr. Kehoe complained to the department about the matter, but until to-day has been unable to get any satisfaction. The case was investigated by the Civil Service Commission, and the charges were declared to be groundless. Regardless of this, the department has continued to hold up the commissions. Mr. Kehoe insisted that the commissions be issued to the Democrats, who were clearly entitled to the places, and after several weeks' delay his contention was to-day sustained by the department. The six Democrats will be appointed and the county service, consisting of six routes, will be installed within a few days.

Big Price For a Single Potato.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—At the Smithfield cattle show four pounds of Eldorado potatoes were sold for $3,000, this being at the rate of $1,680,000 per ton, or about three times their weight in gold. The grower of this remarkable variety of tubers had refused an offer of $350 for a single potato.

The explanation of this extraordinary boom in potatoes is that the Eldorado variety has withstood the disease which has proved so disastrous to the crop in Ireland the past year.
